Team American Dragon: Days of Future Past

Actually going to do the story this time but instead of continuing from where the last one left off it will be a total reboot which takes place 10 years after Jake's battle against the Dark Dragon in the Victoria Peak Temple.

This will stay more true to the series than my other stories did and while Jesse will be in it instead of being Jake's brother he is just another friend who is also a dragon.

The first chapter is not quite done yet but here is a promo for the story:

**An ancient submarine is found off the coast of Long Island.**

**Haley:** "The technology is far more advanced than anything we have ever seen. However after examining everything about it I believe it was created here on Earth."

**And it will lead the American Dragon team on a mission to find out why it was there in the first place.**

**New Character:** "That submarine was a time machine. We came from the future."

**Jesse:** "What do you mean by we?"

**Now they must face a new enemy who threatens to destroy all humanity.****

**Jake:** "They came here from the future to stop him before he destroys humanity. Do you believe her?"

**Jesse:** "I don't know what to believe Jake. What I do know is that if he is a threat to humanity than he needs to be stopped no matter the cost."

**Will they stop him? Or will they not?****

**New Enemy:** "If our race is to survive than the humans must be destroyed. If you stop me than you will seal our fates and they will destroy us all!"
